"The statement in this morning's paper that I promised to deliver the delegates from the Fifth to the territorial convention is absolutely untrue," said W. C. Achi this morning.

Achi is indignant at the story, and says that the action of the ninth precinct of the Fifth, in passing a resolution against him, is based on a misunderstanding as to his attitude as well as to old internal trouble in the precinct.

"This precinct has always been fighting among its own members," said Achi this morning. "Why, at the last campaign I employed twenty runners in this precinct and only four in my own, and still my precinct gave two hundred Republican votes and ninth only one hundred and twenty-five."

"I believe that the reason for the action is that my name is indorsed by the businessmen's committee and some of the trouble is undoubtedly due to candidates who think that I worked against their indorsement. That is untrue. In fact, when one of the committee asked me about men in the Fifth, I mentioned several that could be conscientiously indorsed, and it is not my fault if they were not."

"Personally, I did not seek the support of the businessmen's committee, although of course I appreciate it.
What I want to do now is to make it plain that at no time did I try to prevent other Republicans of the Fifth from being indorsed, and to say that I believe the responsible voters of the Fifth will support those men who were indorsed so strongly by business men after careful consideration."
